On May 26, 2019 the Acworth Police Department responded to 3507 Baker Road (Publix Super Market) regarding a complaint of a peeping-tom. Officers met with the victim who stated that while shopping at Publix she noticed a suspicious male taking a photograph with his phone, from underneath her dress. The victim contacted management and the suspect hastily left the store in a silver sedan.

Officers met with management at Publix and were able to view the incident on camera. The suspect was identified as Christopher Vonhousen 36, of Acworth. He was arrested and charged with one count of Use or installation of device to film underneath or through an individual's clothing. Mr. Vonhousen was turned over to the Cobb County Sheriff's Department for bonding purposes.
