The Acworth Police Department, in partnership with Tilted Tulip Florist in Acworth, will be participating in the Society of American Florists "Petal It Forward" initiative. This is a nationwide initiative to surprise random people on the street with free flowers. Recipients will receive one bouquet to keep, and one to share with someone else. The goal is to promote kindness, compassion, and positive human connection within the community. Police officers and florists will be distributing flowers on Wednesday, October 11th 2017 at several locations around Acworth.
